The latest word received from Golden Bean, who is in a military prison at San Francisco for fraudulent enlist-ment, is that he will re-enter the army, serve out the three years' enlistment and secure an honorable discharge. He says that since he has considered the disgrace of a dishonorable discharge is such that he does not wish his freedom on such terms, and that he will walk out with a clean record. His parents, who live in Richfield, should and will feel much prouder of their son when he does return with an honorable dis-
